Development and Fisheries Department No. NAIS-2011/ CR 56/11A,
Dated 9th June, 2011
2. Government of India, Ministry of Agriculture, Department of Agriculture

Corrigendum:

Due to scanty rains and delayed monsoon, sowing of Kharif crops in Maharashtra is delayed and incomplete. Therefore the cut-off date for submission of Insurance Proposals by farmers under NAIS is extended up to 16th August, 2011 for the current Kharif season 2011 as a special case, subject to the following conditions -

1. The extension will be applicable only to crops sown during the extended period, in the present case, after July 31st, 2011.
2. The condition of crop concerned on the date of submission of proposal should be normal and same will have to be confirmed in the proposal form.
3. Farmers must furnish the area sown certificate from the appropriate authority along with the proposal and Banks should verify the same before acceptance, which will be kept in their record for future reference.
4. The insurance coverage during extended period would be limited to the value of normal coverage i.e. up to the value of Threshold Yield. Additional coverage (up to the value of 150 % of the value of Average Yield) would not be allowed during this period.
